High above the town is Sitio, reached by a funicular that climbs 110m (360ft). All of Nazaré can be seen from here, and across the square is the 17th century Nossa Senhora da Nazare Church with two Baroque belfries and 18th century tiles depicting Biblical scenes. It also contains a revered image of Our Lady of Nazareth that is taken down to the sea in a traditional procession every September. Nazaré is famous for its women who wear skirts with seven petticoats, women would sit on the beach waiting for their fishermen to sail home. To keep warm in the face of a cold sea wind while staying modestly covered, they'd wear several petticoats in order to fold layers around their backs and legs.

Today Nazaré is Portugal's most famous fishing village, having always drawn visitors to its beach and genuinely colorful life.

Finally we visit pilgrimage town of Fatima. Join the faithful at one of the world's holiest sites and pay homage at the Chapel of Apparitions. Overnight in Porto.

Day 4: Porto

Elected Best European Destination 2012 by the European citizens, Porto, is history, architecture, culture, gastronomy, trade, encounters and discoveries. Walking tours in Porto, visits to the city's historical centre of world heritage and monuments of Porto. Itinerary: Torre dos Clérigos, Livraria Lello e Irmão (Tickets are not included), Avenida dos Aliados, Estação de S. Bento, Ponte Luís I, Sé Catedral, Bairro da Sé and Ribeira. Overnight in Porto.

Day 5: Porto - Braga

After breakfast, we have a small briefing about Bom Jesus do Monte Shrine. Ascent will be made on the lift; this is the first funicular of the Iberian Peninsula, built in 1882 by Swiss engineer Nikolaus Riggerbach. This lift uses the system water balance, and it is currently the world oldest, in service, use this ecological system. The cabins have a water tank, full when you are at the top level, and emptying at the bottom. The difference in weight allows the obtained displacement, the amount of water being calculated depending on the number of passengers. The descent of the mount will be done on foot. In the afternoon, we will visit the cathedral. Overnight in Porto.

Day 6: Douro Valley

Some of the best vineyards in Portugal opens the doors for you to the culture and community that are behind a country's history. This is an unforgettable journey through the beautiful landscapes of scenic mountains and wonderful seaside views – taste Portugal with a wine experience and taste the regional flavours that will make a feast for your senses! Lunch is included. After lunch, we visit Shrine of Nossa Senhora dos Remédios. From one of the central avenues in Lamego, climb to the top of the hill up an imposing baroque staircase with 686 steps ending in a shrine built in the rocaille style in the mid-eighteenth century for the worship of Nossa Senhora dos Remédios, although it was not completely finished until 1905. The same Nicolau Nasoni who painted the cathedral ceilings designed some of the baroque works that decorate this monument, in particular a very beautiful granite fountain next to the shrine itself. Various landings enrich the monumental staircase with interesting sculptures, making the long climb of the pilgrims less arduous. Overnight in Porto.
